

KODOMONO KUNI

Nihongo Class

There are many children growing up in the family of diversity background especially here in New York and multiple languages are spoken at home.

Kodomo Kuni offers a Nihongo (Japanese) class for the children who come from the family with some background of Japanese language and whose family is looking for more opportunities for them to communicate with other people in order to maintain the level of it. In this class, children learn Japanese while they enjoy many fun activities. They will also learn Japanese holidays, culture and tradition.
